CENTRAL NEW MEXICO GRADUATE PROFILE

1 am agile & ready to create my future

I have unique strengths & interests

I know and respect myself

Integrity

Self-Awareness

Work Ethic

Reliability

Health & Self-Care

I know and respect others

History and Cultural Awareness

Empathy

Civic- and Community-Mindedness

Collaboration

Communication

Initiative Adaptability & Goal Setting across settings

Computers & Technology Scientific Methods Reading • Writing • Math Curiosity and

willingness to learn

Engaged School, Family, and Community

am resourceful

Resilience and Perseverance

Problem-Solving Critical Thinking

Creativity Literacy

THE LAUNCHPAD: Foundational Experiences

I have opportunities to build on my strengths

I have opportunities to apply my learning in real-world situations I see my family and community culture reflected in my school environment and curriculum

Safety

I have the opportunity to meet high expectations through my unique learning style

Stability

I have opportunities for civic engagement

I have relationships with caring adults

Food Health Water Shelter Transportation of activities

I participate in a variety

I have opportunities to plan for my future

I have opportunities to learn from difficulty and failure

Securit

I have opportunities to work independently and in teams

Community voices informed the development of the Graduate Profile and Launchpad. United Way of North Central New Mexico facilitated 51 focus groups with principals and teachers, postsecondary faculty, employees from different sectors, young people, parents, and community members. More information is available in the Graduate Profile User Guide.

